CITIZENS TO VOTE ON THE NEW CHARTER

The Decision of The Mass Meeting Last Night.

Every Section Gone Over, Amended and Adopted—The Charter To Be Redrafted by Special Committee After Which City Will Be Asked to Publish the Entire Charter For General Distribution—Only Three Commissioners To Be Provided For—The Discussion Last Night.

At 11:30 o'clock last night the mass meeting adjourned sine die after having considered every section in the proposed charter and made such changes as were deemed wise and proper. The special committee which drafted the charter was instructed to redraft the charter according to the changes made and request the city to publish the charter for general distribution to all citizens who desire a copy. On petition of 150 qualified voters to reopen any section for discussion another mass meeting will be called to consider such section or sections. The charter will not become effective after its passage by the legislature until after it is adopted by a popular vote of the citizens of the city.

To sum up, the charter as it now stands provides for three commissioners, one of whom shall be mayor, the duties to be prescribed by the special committee, these three commissioners to have entire charge of the city's affairs. These commissioners are to be elected by the people in the manner before described in these columns and are subject to recall at any time on petition of 25 per cent of the qualified voters of the city. The successor to any commissioner who may be recalled is also subject to recall. The commissioners will be the legislative as well as administrative body and will have power to pass all ordinances, no ordinance to become effective within twenty days from the date of its passage, excepting emergency ordinances. If 25 per cent of the voters object to such ordinance it cannot be enforced unless ratified at a general election. On the other hand 25 per cent of the citizens can petition the passage of an ordinance and the commissioners must either pass it or submit the matter to a vote of the people.

As was expected the matter requiring the most prolonged discussion last night was the section giving the commissioners power to fix the maximum rates to be charged by public service corporations. The committee originally recommended that this power be invested in the board, with the courts as the only recourse. The Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce was divided on this point however, and finally after hearing both sides of the matter discussed a substitute for this section was unanimously agreed upon, this specifying that the commissioners and the corporation interested were to try to agree upon rates should the occasion arise and if they could not agree the whole matter was to go before the corporation commission, this body to fix the rates, either side having the right of appeal. The matter finally terminated in the adoption of the following substitute offered by Judge R. M. Douglas:

"That upon any reasonable complaint from a responsible party that the rates charged by any public service corporation are unreasonable or that the service is defective, the Board of Commissioners shall carefully investigate the matters complained of, and endeavor to obtain a just and equitable arrangement with the said corporation. If no such satisfactory arrangement can be obtained by negotiation, the said board shall enter upon its record an order directing the corporation to render such service as the board may deem proper, and determine the maximum rates that may be charged therefor. The board shall send a copy of such order to the said corporation, and shall immediately transmit to the corporation commission a complete certified copy of the record in the entire matter.

"As soon as practicable after its receipt the corporation commission shall, and it is hereby fully authorized and empowered so to do, set a day for the hearing of said matter, giving both parties reasonable notice thereof and a full opportunity to be heard. After a full hearing, the corporation commission shall decide the questions involved, either wholly or partially in favor of either party as may seem just and equitable which shall become binding unless reversed on appeal. Either party shall have the right of appeal to the courts. The order of the commissioners shall not become effective until approved by the corporation commission as aforesaid."

Mr. R. R. King championed the section originally recommended by the special committee and questioned the change of opinion by the directors. He said that the object was not to fix rates, but to give power to do so if necessary. He said he understood that parties had been trying to forestall the action of the mass meeting on this particular section by active work during the past few days. He said he was willing to risk the honesty of the commissioners elected and if he was not then he would not be in favor of this form of government. He pointed out that if the substitute was adopted a statewide bill would be passed and a uniform rate would be fixed all over the state and Greensboro would have to pay the same rate as smaller cities where the rates would necessarily have to be higher than they should be in Greensboro. He called on the directors to explain why they changed their minds regarding this matter.

Mr. C. H. Ireland replied for the directors, pointing out that the substitute was a compromise measure as the entire board would not agree upon the former recommendation of the committee. As far as he was concerned he would be willing to trust the men elected, but he pointed out, it must be taken into consideration that many of the men who invest money in large corporations live in other places and naturally they would not understand conditions as a citizen would and would not be as willing to trust the commissioners. We must be careful to do nothing that will have a tendency to frighten capital away from the city, he said, but we must make conditions as inviting as possible. Mr. J. N. Wilson made a strong argument in favor of the substitute offered as a compromise. This, he said, provides that the commissioners and the party interested shall try to get together and in case they cannot then the matter goes before a third party, the corporation commission, for adjustment. And this after the commissioners have had free access to the books of the corporation to see just the amount of business the corporation is doing. We must consider what outside capitalists would say was fair to them as they look at the question from an entirely different standpoint, he concluded.

The matter was further discussed by Messrs. C. C. Taylor, O. C. Wyong, M. W. Thompson, J. J. Stone, J. Ed Albright and others. The section offered by Mr. King was voted down and Judge Douglas' substitute adopted.

Section 17, pertaining to the educational features was the first item taken up. Mr. Justice read the revised report of the committee, comprising sections 17 to 21 1-2 inclusive. These provided that the superintendent shall have power to discharge any teacher and shall so report to the board within 24 hours. If desired he shall make a complete report within 48 hours. There is no appeal from his action. The board at any time can discharge the superintendent. Section 21 1-2 provides that a tax of 30 cents on the $100 valuation and 90 cents on the poll shall be collected for school purposes and this shall be set aside exclusively for school purposes, unless the amount is greater than is needed in which case it shall go into the general fund. If the amount is not sufficient additional appropriations can be made by the board.

Mr. John S. Michaux offered as a substitute that the present school system be adopted, excepting that the teachers be elected as prescribed by the above. He cited the excellent system now in vogue here, and also the fact that such system is in use in Houston and Des Moines. Judge Douglas objected to the superintendent having power to discharge a teacher, but the committee report was adopted.

The recall section was taken up. Mr. King thought the requirement for a recall ought to be more than 25 per cent of the qualified voters. This was discussed, and finally adopted as reported, an amendment being added providing that the successor of any commissioner recalled shall be subject to recall also.

The section pertaining to the number of commissioners was then brought up and Mr. T. J. Murphy suggested that three were enough. He suggested that there be a mayor and two commissioners. Mr. King and Mr. Taylor con-curring in this suggestion and it was carried, the special committee being given power to prescribe the duties of each commissioner and submit the report to the directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

Judge Douglas wanted the section empowering the commissioners to charge a maximum rate of $25 per year for hauling garbage from the residence of any citizen, this being compulsory, stricken out. The section was changed, giving the citizen the option of having the garbage hauled away or allowing the city to have it done, the city to charge such sum as necessary to cover the cost of hauling the garbage away.

Mr. King moved that the city be asked to have the charter printed and that another mass meeting be held about the middle of November to again discuss the charter. It was pointed out that every citizen had had an opportunity to attend the meetings and discuss the several sections and it was his own fault if he had not done so. It was also argued that all the work of the three meetings would be thrown away if this were to be done.

Mr. Wilson moved as a substitute that the city be asked to print the charter and that there be no further meeting unless 150 qualified voters sign a petition to have a meeting to discuss certain specified sections. Carried.

Mr. King then moved that the charter be not effective after its passage by the legislature until after it is voted on by the citizens of the city. This motion was seconded by Mr. Wilson and Mr. Taylor and carried.

GORE PREDICTS VICTORY

Oklahoma Senator Says "Remember Maine!" Is the Cry.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Senator Gore, of Oklahoma, passed through Washington last night en route to Mississippi. After a short stay there he will go to his home to inaugurate the Democratic Congressional campaign in Oklahoma. He has been making speeches in close districts and he expressed confidence that the Democrats would sweep the country at the November elections.

"The star of Democracy is again on the ascendant," said the Senator. "The party is united, organized and aggressive. Our best men are entering the lists, the winds and the waves are with us, the spirit of progress is with us, the stars in their courses wage war for Democracy and against unjust, unequal and unnecessary taxation. Much power hath made the Republican party mad. The veil of its temple is rent. It is torn with that ancient struggle between the privileged and the unprivileged, between high and low taxation. The Payne-Aldrich law was not what the Republican party promised, it was not what the American people expected. The Republican party is looking a broken promise in the face. The tariff is the cause of our pending triumph. The fathers believed that taxation might be tyranny. The Republican party believes that taxes are blessings and the Republican standpatter seems to think the higher the tax the greater the blessing. If the Democracy will keep its hands to the plow, we can convince the people that it is better to pay $1 tax than $2 tax on a given article—that is the vital of the tariff questions.

"The country has lost faith in the homeopathic prescription that the tariff should be revised by its friends, and that the trusts should be controlled by their friends. We will make great gains in the Senate, will carry the House, will retrench, prune the limbs of extravagance from the tree of economy. The special elections in New York and Massachusetts indicated the trend of the tide and the tempest. Maine has abolished the impossible. All miracles hereafter are commonplace.

"From sea to sea, the war cry of embattled Democracy will be 'Remember Maine!'"

Struck by Street Car and Probably Fatally Injured.

Raleigh, Sept. 27.—Kate Lewis, an aged "woman about town" was struck by a street car on Fayetteville street near Davis, this afternoon and probably fatally injured. She was crossing the street and to avoid an approaching car moved from one car track only to step in front of another approaching on an adjoining track. She was thrown violently and terribly bruised. She was hurried to the hospital where every attention is being given her.

Carried To State Prison.

Sheriff B. E. Jones left yesterday morning for Raleigh, carrying to the State prison Dr. W. L. Vestal, who was given a ten year sentence on the charge of manslaughter last week. Dr. Vestal appeared indifferent as to his fate and went along without being tied up.

FUNERAL OF B. F. DIXON TODAY

Last Sad Rites This Afternoon.

State Auditor Passed Away Suddenly Monday Night—Was a Confederate Soldier and One of State's Most Distinguished Citizens—Had Been State Auditor For Ten Years.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 27.—North Carolina's State House was draped in mourning today for her distinguished State auditor who passed away last night when anxious friends thought he was fast recovering from his recent attack of Angina Pectoris. The remains were laid in state in the rotunda of the Capital building this afternoon to be viewed by a grief-stricken people. The remains will be in state until the hour of the funeral which will be held from Edenton Street Methodist church tomorrow at 2 p. m. Interment in Oakwood cemetery.

Death came last night within a few moments after the patient had laughingly told his nurse that he was so far recovered that he needed no more medicine. He expected to leave the hospital today for his home on McDowell street. He was 64 years old. Career has been distinguished for marked ability in whatever effort he engaged practicing physicians, minister of the gospel, soldier, legislator or executive officer of the state.

Born March 27, 1846, Major Dixon entered the Confederate service as a sixteen-year-old boy and did valiant service as a Confederate soldier and coming out of the war a captain. Following the war he taught school two years, then entered the Methodist ministry serving churches at Sumpter, S. C., Monroe, N. C., and Shelby. Ill health interrupted his successful career as a minister. Then in 1874 he graduated in medicine and practiced quite successfully for ten years at King's Mountain. He became superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum in 1883, serving for six years. Then he became president of the Greensboro Female College conducting this noted school for girls until 1894. He was elected to the 1897 Legislature from Cleveland county and served with distinguished ability. He was commissioned a major in the Second North Carolina regiment for the Spanish-American war. In 1900 Major Dixon was elected to the office of State Auditor by the people of North Carolina and subsequently twice reelected being in the midst of his third term when he died so unexpectedly last night. Major Dixon is survived by Mrs. Dixon, two sons, B. F. Dixon, Jr., and Wright T. Dixon, of Raleigh, and one daughter, Mrs. W. L. Balthis, of Gastonia. Also three stepsons, J. S. Durham, Bessemer City; R. L. Durham, Cleveland, Tenn., and Rev. Plato Durham, Concord.

A "Def" To Guilford County From Randolph.

Mr. C. S. Brown returned yesterday from a visit to his son-in-law, Mr. J. F. Teague, who lives in Randolph county near Staley. Mr. Brown brought back with him a fine specimen of pear from Mr. Teague's orchard. It was of the noted "pound pear" variety only it would more properly be named a 2-pound than a 1-pound pear as it weighed 1 pound and 9 ounces. Mr. Brown presented this pear to The Telegram and authorized the paper to say that Randolph county defied Guilford county to show a bigger one.

ROBBED WHILE HE SLEPT.

Revolution Man Has $19.20 Taken From Under His Pillow.

Night before last C. C. Bennett, 41 Peach street, Revolution, had $19.20 stolen from under his pillow while he slept. The money, he states, was in his pants pocket and he had placed his pants on the mattress of his bed.

Mr. Bennett, according to the information which came to The Telegram, believes that he was chloroformed.

Football Games.

The Greensboro High School football team has arranged for two contests on the gridiron this season. On Oct. 8 the Reidsville team will be here, while on Oct. 11, the boys will play Bingham. The team is getting into fine shape, considering the fact that all the rules have been changed this season.

WEDDING A SURPRISE

Durham People Much Interested in a Wedding Solemnized Here Saturday.

The Durham Herald has the following about the Eskridge-Bernard wedding, solemnized in this city Saturday and briefly referred to in The Telegram Sunday:

"The city receives a pleased surprise in the announcement coming here from Greensboro that Miss Nellie Bernard, of this city, and Mr. C. D. Eskridge, were quietly married at the home of the Rev. Dr. Melton Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Saturday afternoon at 12:30.

"The bridegroom, sergeant major in the army and stationed at Fort Washington, had recently been here, and though the two were together several times, there was not expected such an announcement as came Sunday night but without the credentials necessary to make publication. The family knew it virtually but could not give it out Saturday. Miss Bernard had left here the morning before. Her friends found first that she had gone when they were rehearsing for the Trinity music and Miss Bernard was to have sung in the choir. When it was discovered that she had gone away on such a mission, the inconvenience experienced in filling her place, was quickly forgiven and a choral congratulation extended.

"Barring the giving up of a favorite daughter, there was no parental objection. Miss Nellie Bernard has been since her coming to womanhood, a mother's pride, and though popular and everywhere liked and admired, the devotion of her and her mother, Mrs. E. E. Bernard, had gone far towards that inseparable companionship which was expected to have outweighed all other possible considerations. Saturday Miss Bernard, because of that very circumstance, chose the quiet matrimonial way and left for Greensboro without confiding to those about her.

"She has known her betrothed sometime and they have been seen much together. He is esteemed a splendid young man and is known well in Western North Carolina. The couple, immediately after the ceremony, boarded No. 36 for Washington, where they will live for a time."

HOPED FOR REINCARNATION

Vera Fitch, Who Attempted Suicide, Wanted a Purer Age.

New York, Sept. 27.—Miss Vera Fitch, the young Californian who shot herself in the Hotel Astor on August 29, gave her reasons Sunday night in an unusual interview. She says she hoped for reincarnation in a more moral world.

The case has been surrounded by much mystery. The young woman's relatives first refused to admit her identity, and the only hint of her motive was gleaned from a letter to her mother in which she wrote: "The Fourth Estate has proved too strong for me. It is really deplorable that a girl cannot succeed honorably in New York. In some things I might have succeeded, had I conformed to the wishes of men—cultured usually, moneyed usually, but minus morals. Death is preferable." It was known that she had literary ambitions. Lying in the hospital where she is convalescing, Miss Fitch said: "I dreamed of a better day when such men would be unknown, when the world would have one moral standard for both men and women. In the belief that I might live again in that purer time I tried to kill myself."

Miss Fitch was born in Oakland, Cal., 23 years ago. Her father was Col. Henry S. Fitch, at one time a millionaire.

WHERE DO THE PENNIES GO?

U. S. Mint Keeps Coining Them by the Million.

Washington, Sept. 27.—In spite of the fact that the Philadelphia Mint coined 146,000,000 pennies last year and many other millions years before the mystery of where the little coppers go still is unsolved. Director of the Mint George E. Roberts estimates that the big plant will make another 100,000,000 cents this year.

Pennies disappear from circulation very mysteriously. The government does not mind coining them, however, for they yield a fine profit. A pound of copper, costing now about 13 cents, will make a dollar in pennies.

The big gold-stamping machines in the Philadelphia office will begin work too next month, and several million dollars in gold bullion will be turned into bright new St. Gaudens coins. The Denver Mint began coining gold two weeks ago.

By the recent installation of labor-saving machinery the Philadelphia Mint is employing 100 fewer people than it did a year ago, and is doing the same amount of work.

WAKE COUNTY INDEPENDENTS

Will Hold Convention Saturday.

Another Stir In Democratic Circles Imminent—Number of Charges Against Reform Wing of Party That Put Out Ticket In June—Some of the Charges Set Forth In Call.

Raleigh, Sept. 27.—The outcome of the call issued for the convention of independent Wake county Democrats to be held her next Saturday, October 1, and signed by sixty-four Democrats from many sections of the county is awaited with very great interest here, the general expectation being that an independent ticket will be put out at that time. The call charges that the ticket put out by the "self-styled reformers" and nominated in the June primaries is not a Democratic ticket, but a "mugwump" ticket. It recites the charge that Dr. Sykes, Democratic "reformers" nominees for the Senate, has voted the national Republican ticket and refused to vote the county Democratic ticket two years ago, while I. H. Lynn and E. R. Pace of the county ticket nominated in the June primaries have for several years affiliated with the Republicans.

The call further charges false and fraudulent charges through the Raleigh morning paper as the organ of the "reformers" campaign management that the "regulars" (the wing of the party now issuing the call for the independent convention) were planning to steal the primary, this being, it is alleged, merely to cover up their own plans for fraud, it being well known, the call declares, that in some townships where their ticket got the largest votes many votes more were cast than the whole number of Democrats on those townships.

A third clause of recitations of reasons for the independent call declares that for thirty days before the June primaries there was carried on by the "reform" wing of the party a cruel and bitter campaign of vilification, lying and misrepresentation, conducted in chief by Josephus Daniels and J. W. Bailey, but approved by the candidates who knew that not one of the county officers had done anything to justify such charges. They declare that no true Democrat could justify such a campaign as was waged and that for those reasons the call for the independent convention is issued. If methods like those in the June primaries go unreformed, the call declares, then others will feel justified in future in destroying character by false charges whenever it suits their purpose to do so. And mugwumps and Republicans and all kinds of political faith will feel justified in going into Democratic primaries. The signers include: Needham Poole, R. M. Davis, Jno. Stevens, J. D. Pleasants, R. H. Templeton, George E. Gill, E. C. Horton, Alfred Powell, Sam Kitchiner, A. S. Cozart, J. F. Adams, G. H. Alford, J. J. Dunn, J. W. Pegram, P. W. Dowd and others.

G. F. C. ALUMNAE

(Communicated.) On Saturday afternoon, October 1, in the Ireland Bible class room in the new Sunday school building of West Market Street Methodist church on Library place, will be held the second quarterly meeting of the local alumnae association of Greensboro Female College. The hour is four o'clock. All members please note the time and place.

On this occasion, as before stated, Mrs. Robertson, president of Greensboro Female College, will make a talk to the alumnae. It is earnestly desired that a large number of the resident alumnae attend and unite in giving a hearty "welcome home" to our president just returned from her second trip abroad.

THIS PHYSICIAN HAD BRIGHT'S

Report on the case of Dr. C. F. Simmons, of San Antonio, Texas.

Was taken down with Bright's Disease several years ago. The patient, being an old-school physician, visited many of the best specialists in the U. S. Was told that he could not live long and was advised to go to Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Was there advised by the consulting physician to change the treatment to Fulton's Renal Compound.

Case responded slowly but steadily, it requiring between one and two years to remove the albumen and effect a recovery.

The last three reports showed no albumen and during the past year patient advises that he has done more mental work than he had done altogether in the five previous years.

Being a graduate physician, Dr. Simmons realizes the importance of his recovery, and unsolicited wrote a personal letter, giving the above facts and saying that if we didn't tell the people of the South about it that he would do it himself. Physicians who still believe in the incurability of chronic Bright's Disease will probably get an interesting letter if they will write Dr. Simmons.

The new emollient treatment for Bright's and chronic kidney disease, Fulton's Renal Compound, can be had in Greensboro from Fariss-Klutz Drug Co. We desire to hear from and advise with patients not noting improvement by the third week. Literature mailed free. John J. Fulton Company, 645 Battery street, San Francisco, Cal. We invite correspondence with physicians who have obstinate cases.

BRIDE SLIPS FROM HIM.

Another Girl Steps in and Shatters Romance for Awhile.

St. Louis, Sept. 26.—John A. Howland, lifesaver, after regaining for a second his heiress bride of a month, formerly Miss Helen O'Brien, was confronted by a startling obstacle in the shape of a young woman living in Philadelphia just as he was about to obtain the blessing of the Catholic Church upon his elopement.

After three days of plots and stratagems, in which he was assisted by friends eager to make the course of true love run smooth, Howland believed he saw happiness and reconciliation with his wife's family within reach. He had met Mrs. Howland twice, once on an automobile trip, and at the home of Michael C. H. Arendes here.

Mrs. Howland agreed to meet him, and accompany him to St. Mark's Catholic Church, Page and Academy avenues, to ask Rev. Father Peter J. O'Rourke's blessing upon their marriage, which had been performed by a Protestant clergyman.

Instead, he was met at the rendezvous by Miss Gertrude O'Brien, and his wife's sister and ally, and the good angel of her troubled romance. Miss O'Brien was weeping and said that her sister was prostrated at her home because of information which had reached her.

Howland was informed by Miss O'Brien that Father O'Rourke had received a vehement and passionate letter from a girl in Philadelphia, who asserted that she had a prior claim upon the handsome young swimmer.

Together Miss O'Brien and Howland went to the Arendes home. Howland described the charges made against his "black falsehoods" and begged her to assure Mrs. Howland of his innocence.

"My sister could not meet you," said Miss O'Brien, "because the letter shown to her by the priest had prostrated her. She said for me to tell you that she still loves you, but that you must clear yourself of the accusations."

DERIVATION OF "BRIDGE."

Origin of Name and Game a Matter of Dispute.

Kansas City Star.
What is the derivation of "bridge," name of the card game? Is there really a Russian word "britch" or "biritch" from which it is derived? A Topeka card club has received the information from a Connecticut school for card players that "bridge" comes from "biritch," meaning "no-trumps." What is the authority of the school?

All the customary sources of information discreetly dodge. The latest Webster suggests it is that "bridge," the card game, is "perhaps a different word" from "bridge," a viaduct. Here it stops. The Standard ignores the word. The latest Century Dictionary devotes a column to a description of the rules of the game. As to the derivation it suggests the ordinary "bridge," but adds: "The allusion is not determined." It adds: "The Russian 'britch,' cited as the source of the English word, must be recently borrowed from the English."

The older books on the game used to derive it pleasantly enough from that "Russian britch," but the latest volume on the subject, the accomplished R. F. Foster's "Complete Bridge," referring to this derivation, says there is no such word in the Russian language. The game in Russia is called "yerlalah." This seems to be the implication of the Century Dictionary's suggestion that if there is a Russian "britch" it must be of English derivation.

There is a good deal of mystery about bridge, anyhow. People who ought to know say that it had been played for many years in Constantinople and in Egypt under the name of "khevide" before it reached England and America by way of the Riviera. Maybe so. But the evidence isn't of a sort that would be accepted in court. Some day an ambitious young man is going to win his doctor of philosophy by a thesis on bridge. Then the truth may become known.

One of the Twins.

Dr. S. Wier Mitchell, alienist and noted author, frequently stops children on the streets and chats with them, says the Philadelphia Times.

He is especially fond of children when they get old enough to chatter. Not a long time ago he made the acquaintance of twin sisters of 7.

"Good morning, my dear miss," he said, meeting one of the twins in Rittenhouse square, "and which one of the twins am I addressing this bright day?"

"With a smile, the prettiest she had the surprised lassie looked into the face of the grave physician and said modestly: 'I'm the one what's out walking.'"

The Knock-out Blow

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ out of the prize ring as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but to the stomach we are utterly indifferent, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out.

Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad, thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol—pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead.

It's foolish and often dangerous to experiment with new or but slightly tested medicines—sometimes urged upon the afflicted as "just as good" or better than "Golden Medical Discovery." The dishonest dealer sometimes insists that he knows what the proffered substitute is made of, but you don't and it is decidedly for your interest that you should know what you are taking into your stomach and system expecting it to act as a curative. To him its only a difference of profit. Therefore, insist on having Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. If not promptly supplied trade elsewhere.

Send 31 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only on a free copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, cloth-bound. Address Dr. Pierce as above. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and strengthen Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

HE LOST THE RACE

Mark Twain's Futile Chase After a Tallyho Coach.

MISSED A BIG CELEBRATION.

The Way the Famous Humorist In Company With W. D. Howells Did Not Attend the Centennial of the Battle of the Minutemen at Concord.

In his reminiscences of Mark Twain in Harper's Magazine W. D. Howells tells amusingly of the time when he and Mr. Clemens missed the anniversary of the battle of Concord:

"Mark Twain came on to Cambridge in April, 1875, to go with me to the centennial ceremonies at Concord in celebration of the battle of the minutemen with the British troops a hundred years before. We both had special invitations, including passage from Boston, but I said why bother to go to Boston when we could just as well take the train for Concord at the Cambridge station. He equally decided that it would be absurd, so we breakfasted deliberately and then walked to the station, reasoning of many things, as usual.

"When the train stopped we found it packed inside and out. People stood dense on the platforms of the cars.
To our startled eyes they seemed to project from the windows, and unless memory betrays me they lay strewn upon the roofs like brakemen slain at the post of duty. We remounted the fame worn steps of Porter's station and began exploring North Cambridge for some means of transportation overland to Concord, for we were that far on the road by which the British went and came on the day of the battle.
The liveries whom we appealed to received us, some with compassion, some with derision, but in either mood convinced us that we could not have hired a cat to attempt our conveyance, much less a horse or vehicle of any description.

"It was a raw, windy day, very unlike the exceptionally hot April day when the routed redcoats, pursued by the Colonials, fled panting back to Boston, with their tongues hanging out like dogs, but we could not take due comfort in the vision of their discomfiture. We could almost envy them, for they had at least got to Concord.
A swift procession of coaches, carriages and buggies, all going to Concord, passed us, inert and helpless, on the sidewalk in the peculiarly cold mud of North Cambridge. We began to wonder if we might not stop one of them and bribe it to take us.

"I felt keenly the shame of defeat and the guilt of responsibility for our failure, and when a gay party of students came toward us on the top of a tallyho, luxuriantly empty inside, we felt that our chance had come and our last chance. He said that if I would stop them and tell them who I was they would gladly, perhaps proudly, give us passage. I contended that if with his far vaster renown he would approach them our success would be assured.

"While we stood, lost in this 'contest of civilities,' the coach passed us, with gay notes blown from the horns of the students, and then Clemens started in pursuit, encouraged with shouts from the merry party, who could not imagine who was trying to run them down, to a rivalry of speed. The unequal match could end only in one way, and I am glad I cannot recall what he said when he came back to me. Since then I have often wondered at the grief which would have wrung those blithe young hearts if they could have known that they might have had the company of Mark Twain to Concord that day and did not.

"We hung about unavailingly in the bitter wind awhile longer and then slowly, very slowly, made our way home. We wished to pass as much time as possible in order to give probability to the deceit we intended to practice, for we could not bear to own ourselves baffled in our boasted wisdom of taking the train at Porter's station and had agreed to say that we had been to Concord and got back.
Even after coming home to my house we felt that our statement would be wanting in verisimilitude without further delay, and we crept quietly into my library and made up a roaring fire on the hearth and thawed ourselves out in the heat of it before we regained our courage for the undertaking. With all these precautions we failed, for when our statement was imparted to the proposed victim she instantly pronounced it unreliable, and we were left with it on our hands intact. I think the humor of this situation was finally a greater pleasure to Clemens than an actual visit to Concord would have been. Only a few weeks before his death he laughed our defeat over with one of my family in Bermuda and exulted in our prompt detection."

Changing to a commission form government is proving to be a trifle harder than it looked at the outset.

The cities for which the census returns do not seem particularly flattering are having a lot to say about their suburbs.

The Southern Republican invites the public to watch Mecklenburg in the coming election. This is a Democratic year and old Mecklenburg, which has never needed watching, will not have to be watched this year.

The New York Republican Old Guard said they had been deceived by the progressives and the progressives insisted that it was the "Albany gang" which did the deceiving. Doubtless both charges were true, certainly as to trying to deceive. What was accomplished was another question.

The New York World of Monday had a page editorial headed "Roosevelt's Revolution." The World is evidently addicted to seeing spooks. There is no revolution on in this country, Roosevelt revolution or any other kind. If the World wouldn't fight the ex-President so much, he would be correspondingly less advertised than he is. His greatness consists, in substantial part, of advertising.

The Telegram is asked by Mr. William Young, Democratic County Chairman of Rockingham county, to state that Congressman Claude Kitchin will speak at New Bethel on Oct. 4 at 1 o'clock with the Rockingham county candidates. Congressman Kitchin is one of the strongest campaigners in the State and his appearance at New Bethel should tend to increase the crowd appreciably.

If the railway men's unions in going into politics shall adhere faithfully to their declared purpose of acting independently and of teaching their members to cut loose from partisan affiliations, they will not only do themselves good service but will contribute to the general improvement of politics.—Columbia State.

If the railway men's unions are dissatisfied with present conditions, they know who's been running the government and should act accordingly.

The mass meeting was wise we believe in not voting in favor of a clause in the proposed new charter that would have been objectionable to the men who have invested their money in the light and power business here. These people should be met half way. They should have every reasonable encouragement. They have announced their intention to reduce their prices and our observation has been that they are men who will carry out their promises. Their spokesman, Mr. Taylor, claims that if given a chance they will do things for Greensboro. As we have said, they should be given a chance and not only a chance, but co-operation and encouragement.

Observes the Greenville, S. C., News:

The Virginia newspapers are demanding the abolition of fees and the substitution of salaries for all officers. This was done in South Carolina in 1901, all State and county officers being put upon salaries and the system has not proven satisfactory. The purpose of the change was to keep the public servant from earning more than a bare living, and thereby keeping him humble and submissive, but the effect has been to keep good men out of politics, leaving the poorly paid public service to men who cannot make a living at anything else.

South Carolina must be an awfully perverse State. Measures that are good and serviceable in other states seem to be misfits in that State. The primary in other states is a tough nut for the professional politician to crack, but in South Carolina the politicians are not perplexed one little bit by it. And the salary system, which in this county has been a conspicuous success, the Greenville News finds to be a dismal failure in South Carolina. But communities thinking of adopting either the direct nominations plan or the salary plan of compensating public officials ought not to make South Carolina their criterion. Things are all awry down there.

PROMINENT MEN WILL BE HERE

J. Campbell White and Other Leaders Will Attend Laymen's Committee-men's Conference In This City October Fourth.

The following leaders in the Laymen's Missionary Movement will be present to conduct the first laymen's committee-men's conference in Greensboro Oct. 3d and 4th: J. Campbell White, of New York, general secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement; I. W. Baker, of Chicago; Col. E. W. Halford, of St. Albans, Vermont; Prof. J. T. Henderson, of the Laymen's committee of the Southern Baptist Convention; Chas. A. Rowland, of Athens, Ga., chairman of the laymen's committee of the Southern Presbyterian church.

Col. Halford was one of the leading speakers in the National Missionary Campaign last winter until he sustained a serious accident while attending the convention at Little Rock, Ark.

The sessions of the conference will be held in the Sunday school room of the First Baptist church.

Quite a number of the churches have not yet furnished Mr. C. C. McLean, chairman of the committee on statistics, the report for which blanks were sent out. It is very important that these be in his hands by Thursday noon. Very little information is asked for and pastors are urged to see that it is furnished at once.

BOYS TO EXHIBIT CORN AT THE FAIR

Prizes Offered To Members of Boys' Corn Club in Every Township by Fair Association—Several Boys Have Already Secured Space and All Others Who Wish To Compete Are Urged To Do So.

As has been announced before the Central Carolina Fair Association offers to members of the Boys' Corn Club a number of prizes, aggregating a total of $100. Prof. T. R. Foust, who is director of this department of the fair, has sent out a letter to the members of the club urging all members to notify him at once if they desire to enter the contest for the prizes so he can reserve space for the exhibits. Already about a dozen boys have applied for space and this feature gives promise of being one of the most interesting as well as instructive of the entire fair. The letter sent out follows:

To the Members of the Boys' Corn Club: The Central Carolina Fair Association offers to the members of the Boys' Corn Club cash prizes amounting to $90.00 in the county. This $90.00 will be divided into Township prizes of $5 each. The boy who exhibits the bushel of the best corn from any township will be given a cash prize of $3.00, and the second best will be given a prize of $2.00. I have been appointed director of this department, and I hope that every boy who is now in the contest will bring a bushel of his corn to the fair. I mean a bushel in the ear, and not enough to shell a bushel; in other words, I want 35 lbs of corn in the ear. In addition to this corn in the ear, I hope that each boy will bring six stalks with the ears on these stalks so as to show how it was grown in the field. Of course you can cut this corn from your prize acre, and when you gather the corn to be measured this corn can be put in it.

I will be at the Fair ground on Monday, Oct. 10, from 2 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon in order to receive the corn and place it in the exhibit. Please let me hear from you at once stating whether you will bring your bushel of corn so that I may know within the next week just how much space will be necessary for the exhibit.

Please do not fail to bring your bushel.

ROOSEVELT SATIRIZED

London Punch Prints Alleged Dispatch About Revolution.

New York Times.

Mr. Roosevelt's personality is the chief reason for the unusual interest taken by England in United States politics. Among Englishmen who met him during his visit here there is an almost unanimous conviction that he will again be President, and it is by no means rare to find the belief that his next occupancy of the White House will be marked by developments toward a dictatorship.

Punch this week satirizes this idea in an article headed "H. I. M. the Emperor of America," and purporting to be sent to the London Times, on October 4, 1910, by its New York correspondent. Some extracts follow:

"This morning Mr. Roosevelt, by a daring coup de main, has overthrown the Republican institutions under which these States had existed for 134 years, possessed himself of the supreme executive power, and has promptly been proclaimed Emperor of America."

"This astounding revolution has so far been unaccompanied by any effusion of blood. The secret, though it had been known to 100 conspirators, had been well kept, and the strong measures taken by his Imperial Majesty and his friends paralyzed the spirit of resistance that might otherwise have manifested itself."

"At 5 a. m. the White House was surrounded by a strong detachment of Rough Riders and Mr. Taft and his family were arrested in their beds. They were subsequently conveyed to an unknown destination. At the same time the Vice President and the members of the Cabinet were seized and imprisoned. The chiefs of the army and navy have already sworn allegiance to the new sovereign."

"At 10 a. m. his Majesty, attended by a Princess of the Imperial house and accompanied by a brilliant staff, rode through the streets of Washington amid deafening popular acclamations."

"Halting before the Capitol, he made an impassioned speech, calling on all those who valued stability of government and believed in his policies to rally round his throne and his person."

"He had, he said, entrusted the preservation of public order to the editorial board of the Outlook, and any complaints ought to be addressed to them, though, for his part, he could not conceive that any loyal subject should want to complain of anything. The great policy of conservation would now be carried out."

"His Majesty concluded by saying that he was having a 'bully time.'"

"Later, the New York American, in a special edition published at mid-day calls upon the populace to rise against the usurper. Hearst has been arrested and will be tried on the charge of treason."

"W. J. Bryan in an interview declares that he suspected the Emperor from the beginning. The triumph of the Democrats, he thinks, is now assured."

"The Evening Post announces that the Emperor is an unscrupulous prevaricator, and declares that no self-respecting American can consent to bow the knee to Baal. The office of the paper has since been destroyed by an infuriated mob."

"Mr. Rockefeller has taken refuge in a church and refuses to come out."

"The Emperor is now engaged in composing a message of 100,000 words strongly affirming both the Monroe Doctrine and his own right to empire and crown. As soon as the message has been delivered Congress is to adjourn for an indefinite period."

Punch follows this dispatch with an alleged extract from the Spectator of the following Saturday. The proprietor and editor of the Spectator is St. Loe Strachey, a personal friend of Mr. Roosevelt. The extract says:

"We cannot pretend to be surprised by the news which has reached us from America this week, that Mr. Roosevelt (if we may be pardoned for speaking of him by the name which is now merged in a more splendid and, we believe, a more appropriate title) should assume the Imperial purple. It cannot startle any one who has made himself conversant, as we have endeavored to do, with the tendencies of American public life and the opinion of American public men, especially of Mr. Roosevelt himself."

"There can be no harm in saying that during his recent visit to this country Mr. Roosevelt expressed to a few intimate friends his contempt for all non-despotic systems of government. He thought that when America managed to

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., Philadelphia, Pa., Memphis, Tenn., Davenport, Ia., Columbia, S. C., or Portland, Ore., according to where you wish to shake off Republican institutions men of sense and of honest capability would come by their own.

"This was his ideal, and he could not help feeling—the expression was his own—that it was a 'bully' ideal."

"We cordially congratulate his Imperial Majesty and his loyal subjects on what has taken place. We are among those who believe that his Majesty is, with perhaps the exception of the Archbishop of Canterbury and Mr. William Higginbotham, the greatest, strongest and most statesmanlike man in existence."

Price of Oil Goes Down Again.

The Standard Oil Company and the Indian Refining Company are continuing their war on each other and in the last day or so there has been another drop in the price of oil. Oil that six months ago sold for 11 cents to the dealers now sells for 7 1/2 cents. The Standard generally makes the reduction and the Indian then meets the competition.

Recruits Bound For the Philippines.

MEMORIES OF MARK TWAIN.

Two Letters the Humorist Wrote to Henry Watterson.

"Mark Twain—An Intimate Memory," is the title of Henry Watterson's article about his cousin as it appears in the American Magazine. Mr. Watterson recites the following incident as being typical of Mark Twain's whimsical point of view:

"His mind turned ever to the droll. Once in London I was living with my family at 103 Mount street. Between 103 and 102 there was the parochial workhouse—quite a long and imposing building. One evening, upon coming in from an outing, I found a letter he had written on the sitting room table and left with his card. He spoke of the shock he had received upon finding that next to 102—presumably 103—was the workhouse. He had loved me, but had always feared that I would end by disgracing the family—being hanged, or something—but the 'workus,' that was beyond him; he had not thought it would come to that. And so on through pages of horseplay, his relief on ascertaining the truth and learning his mistake, his regret at not finding me at home, closing with a dinner invitation. Once at Geneva, in Switzerland, I received a long, overflowing letter, full of buoyant oddities, written from London. Two or three hours later came a telegram: 'Burn letter. Blot it from your memory. Susie is dead.'"

Susie was Mrs. Clemens.

New York Sun.

Hatpins are large enough to hold girls' powder puffs are the latest novelty produced by manufacturing jewelers in Maiden lane. This is said to be the greatest hatpin season in the history of the trade.

So huge are some of the new designs in these pins that the ornamental heads have hinged lids. When the lid is lifted the powder puff is disclosed. In addition the inside surface of the lid is a tiny mirror.

Some of the guards made for the dangerous point of the hatpin match the heads of the pin. Other guards are made even larger and more elaborately ornamented than the heads. The same guards may be used interchangeably for many pins.

Both heads and guards are represented as roosters, pheasants, owls' heads or other bird heads made in gold, silver and gems, or rhinestones and imitations. In some designs the rooster from comb to claws is 3 inches long. Sometimes only a side view of the bird is given, and in other specimens he seems to be strutting out as if for his morning-crow.

LONDON THEATERS.

They Charge From a Penny to Sixpence For a Bill of the Play.

At the London theaters when the young woman shows you to a seat she asks if you wish a program. If you do you pay sixpence in the orchestra or dress circle for a program handsomely printed on fine paper. The price ranges down through "thrillpence" and "tuppence" as the galleries ascend to a penny in the cockpit. The quality of paper and the general artistic merit of the program decline with the price, but exactly the same information is conveyed for a penny as for sixpence. The fastidious theatergoer might prefer to pay a dime for a neat and simple program rather than to have a bulky bunch of advertisements gratis, as in New York, but these London programs, although not so thick as those of New York, are not devoid of advertisements. This gives the purchaser the feeling that he is being worked at both ends. A lady reminds me, however, that a program in a New York theater costs her 10 cents, as the sneaky printing rubs off on her white gloves, the cleaning of which costs a dime.

The quality of the performance at the better London theaters certainly averages no higher than that at similar theaters in New York. The music halls are the resort of the great middle class. These are great auditoriums with tier on tier of galleries, the seating capacity ranging perhaps from 3,000 to 5,000.—London Letter in New York Sun.

PRAY IN CHURCHES FOR RAIN.

Vernon and White Plains Suffer Much from Drouth.

New York World.

Continued drought caused residents of Vernon to suffer more from the lack of water yesterday than any other town or city in Winchester County. Water was turned on for only a short time during the day and the pressure was so low that there was very little water above the second floor of apartment houses. People filled washbaths and bathtubs so as to have an extra supply on hand.

A big steam pump is being installed at Ardley so that water can be pumped from the Saw Mill River, which will give Mt. Vernon more water, but the pump will not be in operation, it is expected, before tonight. Both Mt. Vernon and White Plains may be forced to go to New York City for water from the Kensico Reservoir, which is seven miles north of the latter village. In several churches in Westchester county, yesterday, prayers for rain were offered.

A Reliable Medicine—NOT A NARCOTIC

She writes: 'Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house.' Sold by all Druggists."

A Wise Precaution.

The day before she was to be married the old negro servant came to her mistress and entrusted her savings in her keeping. "Why should I keep it? I ought you were going to get married," said her mistress. "So I is, Missus, do you 'spose I'd keep all dis money de wid dat strange nigger?"—Success Magazine.

"One bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy made me well," said J. Sibbitt, of Grand View, Wis. Commence taking it now." Sold by all Druggists.

TO BE EMPEROR THEODORE.

Boston Minister Declares That is Roosevelt's Aim.

Boston, Sept. 26.—Predicting that Theodore Roosevelt was going to make himself in effect emperor of the United States, the Rev. H. S. Johnson, in a sermon on "Theodore I," exuded a few ideas that are causing not a little comment here today among politicians. Discussing the former President and his activities, Rev. Mr. Johnson said, in part:

"Theodore I needs to be controlled. He has risen to such heights that there is grave danger he will forget anybody else is living in the world."

"I think Mr. Roosevelt is the most remarkable man in our generation. He thinks so too. And that's where the trouble lies. When a man begins to think too much of himself he begins to forget others."

"Hitherto I have always voted for him. I think he is a second Abraham Lincoln. I think that everything that is good about him, He will spoil all the respect he has won in the hearts of many people if he does not follow the example of the illustrious Father of Our Country, and be content with two terms."

Two Short Words.

"The best," well describes the satisfaction every user feels when he tries Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve for his head or chest cold, or his croupy child. It is a comfort, a cure and a joy. Try a jar and get your money back if not pleased.

Graft.

"You don't say so!"

"Yes, every last man of them had his appendix removed, and charged the cost to operating expenses."—Puck.

The Famous "Holeproof" Hosiery Can Now Be Purchased Only At This Store

This Hosiery is Absolutely Insured Against Holes for Six Months

We have just secured the selling agency for the famous Holeproof Hosiery in this city. This is the original guaranteed hosiery that has been so widely advertised in the magazines but which has never yet been on sale at any store in town.

The guarantee which we reproduce on this page comes with every box of the hosiery. It is a promise that we will gladly redeem—if any of the hosiery needs darning or mending within six months it will be exchanged for new hosiery.

The manufacturers of this hosiery stand back of us in making this guarantee. They have used only the finest and best materials the market affords. They pay 63 cents a pound for Egyptian and Sea Island cotton, instead of buying the ordinary cotton at 12 cents a pound.

Every pair is stylish as well as comfortable. They are made to fit the ankle as smoothly as a glove fits the hand. They are soft and dainty yet they outwear other hosiery almost six to one.

Men's hose come in eleven colors and women's in six. Price from $1.50 to $3 a box of six pairs. Children's hose come only in black and tan at $2 a box of six pairs.

FAMOUS
Holeproof Hosiery
FOR MEN WOMEN AND CHILDREN

There is only one difference between the common hosiery and "Holeproof." And that is that "Holeproof" wears six times as long as the other. Yet the price for both is the same.

"Holeproof" is made with 3-ply yarn in the body and 6-ply in the heels, toes and knees. This gives double the strength where the wear comes most.

Every pair is minutely inspected before it leaves the factory. It costs $30,000 a year for this inspection alone so you understand something of the quality that goes in "Holeproof."

It has taken 31 years to attain this perfection but the sales now amount to more than 3,000,000 pairs every year. No other guaranteed hosiery begins to equal such tremendous sales as this.

We invite everyone to call and examine this wonderful hosiery before purchasing. We want you to note how soft and comfortable it really is. We want you to see the attractive colors for yourself and to note the stylish appearance.

We know that once you have done this you will never again be satisfied with the common hosiery that costs just as much but needs to be darned every week.

Reg. U. S. Pat. Office, 1906.

The Guarantee

That these Six Pairs of "Holeproof Hosiery" will need no darning for six months. If they should, we agree to replace them by new ones upon the receipt of this ticket with the original pair and Coupon A, provided they are returned to us within six months from date of sale to wearer.

EX-GOV. GLENN HERE

On His Way North But Will Come Back To Get Into the State Political Campaign.

Ex-Gov. R. B. Glenn spent several hours here last night on his way north. He will deliver lyceum lectures in New York and Maine for about two weeks. Then he will return to North Carolina and be in the State political campaign until the election.

The ex-Governor says the outlook very encouraging for the Democracy. He does not believe, he states, that there is even a remote chance of this district remaining Republican. He believes that Maj. Stedman's majority will be anywhere from two to three thousand.

"Of all years," said Governor Glenn, "this is the year for North Carolina to be loyal to the Democracy. For with the Democrats gaining everywhere it would look strange indeed to see them losing in North Carolina. I have been all through the west and have found the Democrats united and aggressive and the Republicans divided. The next House will be Democratic beyond a doubt and I believe, too, that the Democrats will elect their candidate to the Presidency two years from now."
